Testimonial

I wear Sea for its quality and functionality first and foremost. I always go really hard on my gear in training and competition and have found that Sea lasts the longest and is the most reliable. After using an array of different sailing equipment brands, I wouldn't look past Sea..

The hiking pants are made really well and the battens are just the right size and in the right position so you can focus on hiking hard! The 'waist lock system' is one of my favorite features and makes me feel strong through my core and lower back. In my opinion and having tried 4 or 5 different brands, they are the best hiking pants on the market.

The materials used by Sea are top quality and endure the toughest of conditions, whether it be training on sunny Sydney Harbour or racing in freezing northern Germany, and they look great too!
